Hello, all Errol Lee enthusiasts!

I wish to share a moment of your time, so you come to know Errol as I do.

I have had the pleasure of fostering a truly genuine friendship with him on both a professional and personal level over the years.

In these times, I have seen firsthand the inspiration he fuels in those who are lucky enough to share a few moments with him. His smile is quite contagious.

For a decade, he has entertained young and old alike, from elementary schools to high schools and special events at the YMCA, he is always genuine, and his energy knows no bounds.

He gives of himself even if it costs, because to him, our youth is worth the additional effort and sacrifice.

Yes, he sings, yes, he dances; however, he doesn't limit his influence to just the musical stage alone.

He has sat as a judge on Innisfil's got Talent competition for three years and cheered every single person who mustered the courage to perform in front of an audience. It did not matter if it was their first time or their fifth.

I have also witnessed firsthand how he makes every attempt to build bridges in our community by sharing the idea we are all one people. To him, it does not matter where our story begins. In fact, it was at the Innisfil ideaLab and Library that Errol sat on a panel with Michele Newton discussing how our town has become a mosaic of beauty and even more recently stood side by side with me at a Black Lives Matter rally.

Life does not always allow us the time we wish to share with each other, but when we meet, it doesn't matter and is greeted with a warm hug and discussion about what we have accomplished.

His music speaks to his incredible soul, and I am blessed to call to him a friend.

Take a moment to hear his words in song and you will know why yourself...
